IMPRISONMENT:

SENTENCE: Count 1: The deft. shall be committed to the custody of the BOP to be imprisoned for a total term of 30 months. The term consists of months on count , a term of months on count and months on count , all to be served concurrently/consecutively.

- The deft. is remanded to the custody of the U.S. Marshal.
- The deft. shall surrender for service of the sentence at the institution designated by the BOP/U.S. Marshal before _____ on _____, as notified by the U.S. Marshal.
- If deft. is unable to arrange transportation to the designated institution, the United States Marshal will arrange transportation for the defendant.
- If the defendant is not notified by the United States Marshal of the institution designated, the defendant shall report to the United States Marshal at 600 Granby Street, Norfolk, VA, by _____ on _____, to begin service of the sentence.

PROBATION:

- The deft. shall be placed on probation for a term of years.

SUPERVISED RELEASE:

Upon release from imprisonment, the deft. shall be on supervised release for a term of LIFE. This term consists of ____ years on count ___, a term of ____ years on count ___, and a term of ____ years on count ___, all to run concurrently.

Standard Conditions of Supervised/Probation:

The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

The deft. shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance and submit to one drug test within 15 days of release on supervised release and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the probation officer.

____ As reflected in the presentence report, the deft. presents a low risk of future substance abuse and therefore, the court hereby suspends the mandatory condition for substance abuse testing as defined by 18 USC 3563 (a)(5). However, this does not preclude the U.S. Probation Office from administering drug tests as they deem appropriate.

____ It shall be a condition of supervised release that the deft. pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties sheet of this judgment.

Special Conditions of Supervised Release/Probation:

The deft. shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for substance abuse, which program may include residential treatment and testing to determine whether the deft. has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol, with partial costs to be partially paid by the deft., all as directed by the probation officer.

____ The deft. shall waive all rights of confidentiality regarding substance abuse treatment in order to allow the release of information to the United States Probation Office and authorize communication between the probation officer and the treatment provider.

____ The deft. shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for mental health treatment. The costs of these programs are to be paid by the defendant as directed by the probation officer.

____ The deft. shall pay support for his child/children in the amount ordered by any Division of Child Support Enforcement or court of competent jurisdiction. In the absence of such order, payments are to be made on a schedule to be determined by the court at the inception of supervision, based on the defendant's financial circumstances.

____ As directed by the probation officer, the deft. shall apply monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritances, judgments, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation, or in a lesser amount to be determined by the court, upon the recommendation of the probation officer.

The deft. shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

 The deft. shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information.

 The deft. is prohibited from engaging in any occupation where the deft. would have access to another individual's personal information or money.

 The deft. shall perform _____ hours of community service as directed by the probation officer.

 The deft. is prohibited from having access to any checking or savings accounts.

 The defendant shall obtain a GED or a vocation skill during his period of supervision if not employed full-time.

 The deft. shall be on Home Detention, which shall include electronic monitoring at the deft's expense, for a period of _____ consecutive months/days. During this time, he/she shall remain at his/her place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation officer.

 Deft shall maintain a telephone at his place of residence without party lines, telephone answering machines, a modem, "call forwarding," "caller ID," "call waiting", portable cordless telephones or any other devices or services that may interfere with the proper functioning of the electronic monitoring equipment for the above period. Deft shall wear an electronic monitoring device, follow electronic monitoring procedures, and pay the cost of electronic monitoring, all as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for mental health treatment, to include a psychological evaluation, and sex offender treatment. The costs of these programs are to be partially paid by the defendant as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall waive all rights of confidentiality regarding sex offender/mental health treatment in order to allow the release of information to the United States Probation Office and authorize communication between the probation officer and the treatment provider.

Pursuant to the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, the defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where the defendant resides, works, and attends school, according to federal and state law and as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall submit to polygraph testing as directed by the United States Probation Officer as part of his sex offender therapeutic program. The costs of the testing are to be partially paid by the defendant as directed by the probation officer.

Pursuant to the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, the defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of supervision.

 The defendant shall not possess or use a computer to access any online computer services at any location, including employment, without the prior approval of the probation officer. This includes any internet service providers, bulletin board systems, or any other public or private computer network.

The defendant shall have no contact with minors unless supervised by a competent, informed adult, approved in advance by the probation officer.

If recommended by the sex offender treatment provider, the defendant shall submit to penile plethysmograph testing, or a comparable test, as directed by the United States Probation Office as part of his sexual offender therapeutic treatment. The costs of the testing are to be partially paid by the defendant, as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall not utilize any sex-related adult telephone services, websites, or electronic bulletin boards. The defendant shall submit any records requested by the probation officer to verify compliance with this condition including, but not limited to, credit card bills, telephone bills, and cable/satellite television bills.

The defendant shall not accept any paid or volunteer positions involving children.

The defendant shall not have any access to or possess any pornographic material or pictures displaying nudity or any magazines using juvenile models or pictures of juveniles.

Illegal Alien Special Conditions:

 As a condition of supervised release, upon completion of the term of imprisonment, the defendant is to be surrendered to a duly-authorized immigration official of the Department of Homeland Security Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement for deportation in accordance with established procedures provided by the Immigration and Naturalization Act, 8 U.S.C. Section 1101, et seq.

 As a further condition of supervised release, if ordered deported, the defendant shall remain outside the United States.

 If at anytime the defendant illegally reenters the United States during the term of supervised release, his illegal reentry will be a violation of supervised release, as well as a violation of law.
